

45th West London Local History Conference

SHOPPING IS NEVER DONE

West london High Streets down the decades

Saturday 11 April 2026

Copyright: Wandsworth Libraries and Heritage Service

Questors Theatre - Down Our High Street

David Shailes - Goddards

James Marshall - Feltham & Hounslow High Streets

Neil Robson - Arding & Hobbs

Carolynne Cotton - Bentalls of Kingston

Val Bott - Shopping in Georgian Brentford

A one-day conference at

Duke Street Church, Duke Street, Richmond

Tickets £15.00 on sale at www.ticketsource.co.uk/west-london-local-history-conference

Conference sponsored by the local history societies for: Acton, Barnes & Mortlake, Brentford & Chiswick, Fulham & Hammersmith, Hounslow, Richmond,
Twickenham, Wandsworth and the West Middlesex Family History Society.

SHOPPING IS NEVER DONE

West London High Streets down the decades

9.30	Doors open	Stalls available for browsing
9.45	Paul Rawkins	Welcome and housekeeping
9.55	Questors Theatre	Down Our High Street: The Reminiscence Roadshow
10.30	Coffee Break & Bookstalls
11.00	David Shailes	Goddards: Serving Brentford for 200 years
11.35	James Marshall	Feltham & Hounslow: Change in two high streets from 1950's to the present
12.15	Lunch Break
1.15	After lunch readings
1.45	Neil Robson	Arding & Hobbs, Clapham Junction: South London's finest drapery house
2.20	Tea Break & Bookstalls
2.50	Carolynne Cotton	Bentalls: The Kingston Department Store since 1867
3.30	Val Bott	Shopping in Georgian Brentford
4.30	Conference closes

The venue is well served by transport links all within a five minute walk.
Lunch is not provided. Richmond has many cafes nearby.

‘Arding & Hobbs’ image by kind permission of Wandsworth Libraries and Heritage Service
‘Frank Bentalls’ image by kind permission of Kingston Heritage Service